Bookings, reservations and payment conditions for all safaris:

1. A safari with Estreux Safaris is only booked and confirmed once a deposit of 50% of the total daily rate for the entire duration of the safari have been received as well as a signed safari contract.
2. The balance of the total daily rate is due 90 days before commencement of the safari.
3. Trophy fees and fees for other services are calculated on completion of the safari and to be paid in Namibia prior to departure.
4. All payments are to be made in United States Dollar (US$).
5. Only bank deposits and cash will be accepted. (Namibian banks regrettably no longer accepts travellers' cheques)
6. Unused fees paid in advance will be refunded.
7. No credit cards or personal cheques will be accepted at the end of the safari.
8. Please e-mail Estreux Safaris for our bank account details at: info@estreuxsafaris.com

Cancellation policy on all safaris:

1. If a safari is cancelled more than 180 days prior to the agreed commencement date, the down payment less 40% administration fees will be refunded.
2. If a safari is cancelled within 180 days prior to date of commencement, no portion of the safari down payment shall be refunded.
3. Full deposits can be carried forward for a safari to a later date – when re-booked for the following year; the new price list will be applicable.
4. We strongly suggest clients to purchase trip cancellation and medical insurance.

Other special conditions on all safaris:

1. Client's safari starts upon arrival in the respective concession and ends upon leaving the respective concession. Day of arrival and day of departure does not count as hunting days, as arrival and departing times of transfers to hunting camps and back does not allow for hunting on the specific days.
2. The client is obliged to notify the outfitter timely of any special health conditions as well as dietary preferences prior to arrival.
3. Liability: Although Estreux Safaris will take every reasonable precaution to ensure the safety, wellbeing and satisfaction of you our valued client, we strongly recommend that each client should arrange their own travel and accident insurance, as Estreux Safaris is not responsible for any expenses or loss of hunting days resulting from changes of flight schedules, delays or loss of baggage by international air carriers or domestic charter companies. Any expenses or inconveniences, including hotel, restaurants, supplementary airplane ticket charges, etc. not specifically mentioned above are the responsibility of the hunter.
4. Big Game Hunting is by definition a potentially dangerous sport. Estreux Safaris does not accept any liability for any accidents, illness, death, or any damage to or loss of property before, during or after the safari, or for any additional expenses, or for the negligence of any company or personnel entrusted to the company.
5. Due to the habitat diversity of Namibia, it is impossible to hunt all of the endemic species in one specific area of the country.
6. Estreux Safaris shall at any time have the right, in its entire discretion, to alter the terms of the safari in relation to route, timetable, itinerary and accommodation on short notice. The outfitter shall, however, make every effort to offer the client an alternative of comparable standard.
7. By prior arrangement and at Estreux Safaris' discretion, additional hunting days may be added on package hunts.
8. Furthermore, additional animals may also be added at normal trophy hunting rates during package hunts.
9. By prior arrangement and at Estreux Safaris' discretion, additional hunting days may be added to normal trophy hunting safaris.
10. No animals or any part thereof can be exported during a management culling hunt. VAT of 15% is applicable to all own use and cull hunts.
11. Only two trophy animals per species may be hunted, or as per available quota agreed by the Ministry of Environment and Tourism in Namibia.
12. Plains game hunts - minimum 6 (six) hunting days.
13. Leopard hunts - minimum 14 (fourteen) hunting days.
14. Dangerous game hunts - depend on species hunted.
